

PRAYER 365

A Call to Prayer

Trinitarian speaks to some prayer partners and their experiences thus far.

By Chang Wai Wai

In June 2009, Senior Pastor Dominic Yeo called for a prayer movement covering over both Singapore and our church. Prayer 365 was thus birthed.

Since then, 922 prayer partners have responded, and they were each assigned a particular day where they will pray and intercede for the church, its events, ministries, Missions Impact Trips and the nation. We even have prayer partners who have committed to pray till 30 June 2010!

Here, we talk to some of our prayer partners who share about why they signed up for Prayer 365, and their experiences in seeing their prayers accomplish great things for the Lord's Kingdom.

What motivated you to sign up for Prayer365?

I believe and have experienced the power of prayers. So when Pastor Dom shared about Prayer365, the message just gripped me.

Aw Soo Bing, teacher

I felt a burden to love the nation and our people.

Teh Poh Chai, deputy general manager

I signed up because I really love Singapore and Trinity.

I want to do my part in this wonderful prayer initiative.

Chan Siong Yu, homemaker

I simply wanted to step out in faith, obey and be a part of this movement to seek and glorify God.

Terence Ten, teacher

What were some good experiences that you have since Prayer365 was launched? How are you impacted?

It moves me closer to God and ultimately fires up my spirit.

Cindy Lim, builder and designer

I now care more for the people around me, and intercede for them through prayer.

Walter Tay, assistant regional credit manager

I am more sensitive in hearing God, especially after I received an impression from God while praying. It was so clear! I never thought I could hear God this way.

Grace Teo, homemaker

What do you believe Prayer365 and your prayers can accomplish?

I believe in the power of prayer, and that God will do His part in accomplishing what He desires for our church, nation and leadership team.

Shirley Teo, real estate agent

I have the faith to believe that as we seek His face and pray, God hears us. Even if we do not pray with eloquence and articulation, I believe God acknowledges our hearts' cries and partnership.

Yvonne Lim, marketing manager

I know that taking a step to pray is a way of exercising my faith and I am sure that in God's timing, things will work out according to His will.

Dora Tsoi, childcare teacher
