

Morning Prayer with God

During 18 to 22 January, many were refreshed in God's presence as they set aside their mornings to meet with Him. We find out the significance of Morning Prayer to them.

I came because I wanted to seek God and align myself with Him. I feel that Prayer is about setting one's priorities right and acting out of obedience to God.

Steven Cheah,
regional manager

I thought it would be refreshing to start the day with God and 'set the day off right'. Morning Prayer is like TAWG because like TAWG, here I also encounter God and speak to Him. I know one thing Morning Prayer can do that devotion can't. The Bible says in Matthew, For when two or more are gathered in my name, there am I with them.

I wanted to be recharged and to seek God for this season of my life. I believe Morning Prayer is, as Pastor Gerald said, "Aligning ourselves to God's will and knowing that we can have the strength and confidence to do everything in His will.

Peter Leong, self-employed

I wanted to have a personal touch from God and experience more of His presence. I personally like to pray in the mornings. The Bible says it is good to seek the Lord the first thing in the morning.

Maniam Sadyan,
marketing and business development manager

Morning Prayer is like devotion but of a different kind because there is a Pastor sharing. It is also encouraging to see others in the church praying. It's like having five consecutive mornings of prayer meetings!

Koh Yang Cheng, student

I chose to attend Morning Prayer because I want to draw closer to know God more. I also believe that praying together is more impactful.
